Contact Us

Four locations

- La Mirada
- Wells Medical Office Building
- Washington Medical Office Building
- Plaza Medical Office Building

When you need to schedule a blood test, PIH Health is here for you. We have four conveniently located blood draw stations in the Whittier area.

No appointment is necessary; however the longest wait times are typically during the first hour of operation. Some tests may come with food and beverage restrictions, and you may be asked to fast before you come to have your blood drawn. We recommend you wear loose or short-sleeved clothing to facilitate the blood draw procedure.

All patients are required to bring a lab slip from a physician. Your test results will be sent directly to your doctor.

We accept many health insurance plans. Contact us before you visit to verify that we accept your plan.
